

December 10th 2022 to January 10th 2023

In downtown Sherbrooke, elf hunting is a popular activity, very popular even. Efl yes! In fact, our small friends love to play and hide in CentrÔville. Are you ready to go on an adventure with them? The naughty elves have dropped their magic letters for a Christmas with a local flavor all over CentrÔville. Go on with this scavenger hunt in search of them by answering different questions. Collect the letters one by one to solve the big mystery word and have a chance to win many prizes.

How to play?

You can play online on this website using a cell phone or by downloading and printing the questionnaire. Psssst: you can also find some printed copies of the game at the Tourist Information Office located at 785 King Street West.

Now it's up to you!

Now you just have to go to 9 Wellington North St. Be sure to cross King Street carefully at the intersection while waiting for the pedestrian light.

2

Let's go! - 9, Wellington Nord

There are three of them downtown Sherbrooke, and you can learn all kinds of things about art, science and history. Hint: locate the elf on the map, it's about to make some great discoveries!

Yes, downtown Sherbrooke has three museums: the Sherbrooke History Museum, the Museum of Nature and Science and the Sherbrooke Museum of Fine Arts. Moreover, they are open during the holidays if you are ever looking for a fun and educational activity to do. Next puzzle: 30-32 Wellington Street North. Be careful to use the pedestrian crossing!

3

Christmas of yesteryear - 30-32, Wellington Nord

Beware, this little elf is hard to find, as it is busy painting a winter landscape on the cover of a...

A very special congratulations to La Chiffonnière who created this decor with the 2nd grade students of Mrs. Katia Arbour's class, École Jean-XXIII. Next question: 48 Wellington Street North.

4

Textile Window - 48, Wellington Nord

It's well known that elves are very good at making little things. Here they are intertwined with thread, wool and needles. What are they doing?

A very special thank you to La Chiffonnière for creating this decor in collaboration with the extracurricular sewing group at Mitchell-Montcalm school. Now go to 70 Wellington Street North for the next question.

5

The North Pole - 70, Wellington Nord

Our elf got lost en route to the North Pole. On his way, he came across large hairy beasts and wished to disguise himself like them. What did the elf disguise himself as?

Congratulations to La Chiffonnière for this magnificent set created in collaboration with Elizabeth Larochelle and Erick Olaya from the extracurricular set design group at the Mitchell-Montcalm school. Now head to 172 Wellington Street North for the next puzzle.

6

Snowmen - 172, Wellington Nord

--	--	--	--	--

The fabulous window paintings that you will come along throughout your ballad are a creation of Les Merises. Now go to 119 Frontenac Street. On your way, admire the beautiful decorations of Sherbrooke City Hall. Take a moment to say hello to Gustave, the giant garden gnome who loves being part in the events and activities that take place in Sherbrooke!

8

Desjardins Christmas village - 119, Frontenac

In this magnificent Christmas village hides a little elf in a window. What color is the house?

--	--	--	--	--

Here, we would like to thank Desjardins who is a partner of the Chasse aux lutins in CentriVille for a third year. Thanks to this partnership, the team that organizes the activity can impress you. Congratulations also to La Chiffonnière for creating this Christmas village in collaboration with the students of Mrs. Annie Arbour's class, 3rd and 4th grade, Quatre-Vents school. Next question: climb up rue Marquette towards the cathedral.

9

Montée - Marquette Street

He hides here: "Run, run, as fast as you can. You can't catch me. I'm the ..."

We let you catch your breath here! The next clue will be in front of Saint-Michel Cathedral!

Saint-Michel Cathedral - 130, de la Cathédrale

The one that finds its origins among the Romans and the Germans has the trick of awakening the spirit of the Holidays among Catholics. Used flat and adorned with candles, it marks the four Sundays before Christmas, while in the front door it is a sign of hospitality.

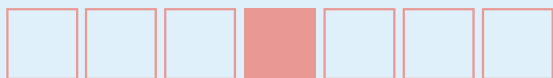

Did you know that it is possible to visit Saint-Michel Cathedral? There are free or guided tours. Discover the website of the Diocese of Sherbrooke to find out more. For the next clue, go to the Marché de poisson de Sherbrooke, corner Marquette and Peel.

Marché de poisson de Sherbrooke - 265, Marquette

Get close to the window facing Peel Street. A snowman takes the opportunity to practice which winter sport?

The next riddle is on the Fifth Element mural further on Marquette Street.

12

Murale The Fifth Element - 332, Marquette

Find the elf hiding in the mural... What did it catch?

Did you know that there are many creatures hiding in the murals of Sherbrooke? There is also a seek-and-find game in the murals. More details at the Tourist Information Office or at www.murales-sherbrooke.com. The next clue is literally in candy heaven, La Maison du bonbon at 363, Marquette Street.

13

La Maison du bonbon - 363, Marquette

Our elf has found something to calm his rage for sugar. What candy does he devour?

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

To find the next clue, you must go to rue King by crossing the place de la Cité by rue Couture... So it's an appointment at the Librairie Les deux sœurs at 285 King Street West.

14

Librairie Les Deux Sœurs - 285, King Ouest

Through the forest of paper hides an imaginary creature of the greatest tales of capes and swords! What is this creature?

--	--	--	--	--	--

Do you like books? This Librairie has made children's literature and diversity one of its specialties! The next clue is on the other side of King Street West. Be careful to cross at the traffic light.

15

The giant book - 298, King Ouest (corner Alexandre and King)

Here, our elf loves to be told stories under the...

Thank you and congratulations to La Chiffonnière for the magnificent decorations created as part of La Chasse aux lutins in CentrÔville. Next question: 16, Alexandre Street.

16

Ça beigne - 16, Alexandre

There is nothing better than the donuts made here! Besides, our elves particularly like them, but there is a character who looks at them with his gruff expression, who is he?

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

Next question: 90, Alexandre Street.

17

Choupinette - 90, rue Alexandre

How many ornaments did our goofy elf drop?

--	--	--	--

Are you looking for a locally made gift? The Choupinette boutique works with more than 200 local businesses and artisans. This is the perfect place to get an original gift! Next question: 150, Alexandre Street.

18

Stickermania - 150, Alexandre

Barbie has just moved into her brand new Victorian home. Fortunately, she can count on the help of her friends to help her settle in. Who are they?

--	--	--	--	--	--

Special congratulations to Michel Rémy from Stickermania who surpasses himself every year by creating original and different Christmas windows that make us dream. Besides, if you are looking for original stickers, you may want to step in this business! The next clue is found around the front door of Sacré-Cœur School at the corner of Ball and Gillespie streets.

19

École Sacré-Cœur - corner Ball and Gillespie

You know the saying? When the students are not in class, the elves have fun!!! Here they use the school windows to play...

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

Thank you to the Sacré-Cœur school who did not make a case of letting the elves enter the school for the holiday season! ;) Next question: Gillespie and King corner in Louis Luncheonette's window.

20

Louis Luncheonette - 260, rue King Ouest

Who am I? I like to satiate myself with a good poutine before the great tour.

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

The next clue is at the very bottom of King Street just before the Wellington Street South intersection.

21

Chambre de commerce de Sherbrooke - coin King Ouest et Wellington

This master elf loves books. He also takes advantage of this promontory to learn more about the extremely complex science of teasing elves. What is he sitting on to do his readings?

--	--	--	--	--

You see, even the leader of the elves is trying to unravel the mystery of these little, adorable but oh so naughty creatures!!! Next question: window display of Café Bla Bla, a must-visit restaurant in the centro.

22

Café Bla Bla - 2, rue Wellington Sud

It's well known that elves love snow. Besides, there is one who swapped his reindeer to go down to CentrÔville on the back of ...

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

The next clue is just across the street at MontVR.

23

MontVR - 5, rue Wellington Sud

In this showcase, a mischievous elf is having fun exploring the snowy setting on his magnificent ...

--	--	--	--

The next riddle is on the painted window of the Joyeux Délices, at 35 Wellington Street South.

24

Joyeux Délices - 35, rue Wellington Sud

Our elves love ice cream, it's known! They made a tiny ornament placed in the tree and inspired by their favorite flavor of ice cream.

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

It is the penultimate letter of our incredible adventure! The final showcase is a little hidden... Walk on South Wellington towards 70 and turn the corner for more magic!

25

The great finale

L'atelier de jouets Pomango - 70, rue Wellington Sud

Our favorite elf's first name is inspired by this cookie flavor...

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

You have found the 25 letters lost by the elves. The elves will be eternally grateful to you and promise to come back and play in Sherbrooke with you. A very special congratulations to the Lion Agency and to Pomango for the decorations of this unique and magical toy workshop. In closing, be sure to fill out the form correctly for a chance to win one of the great prizes! The draw will take place on January 12. You liked the game, tell your friends! Until then, have fun and above all, have a happy holiday season!
